

the memory of our late highly valued and lamented colleague.

By order,

Jos: H. Nicholson, Clerk.

Mr. Hughlett submitted the following message, which was read and adopted.

By the Senate,

March 8, 1832.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message informing us that the public business now before the legislature does not require an extension of the legislature beyond Saturday next, and you propose with the concurrence of the senate to adjourn on that day sine die. The senate are extremely desirous to bring the session to a close as soon as the business can be completed, and no effort on our part will be left untried which is consistent with a proper deliberation, and which will comport with the welfare of the people, to bring the session to a final close on Saturday next and adjourn sine die.

By order,

Jos: H. Nicholson, Clk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following message.

By the House of Delegates.

March 8, 1832.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message informing us that the bills designed to be signed by his excellency this evening are not in a state of preparation to receive his signature. We therefore agree to postpone the ceremony until the time mentioned in your message.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Cl'k.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

---

FRIDAY, March 9, 1832.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.
