

for the use of the members of the legislature, reported favorable thereon.

They were then severally read the second, and by special order the third time, assented to and returned to the house of delegates.

The senate proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day, being the bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to reduce into one, the several acts of assembly, respecting elections and to regulate such elections.

When on motion of Mr. Page, the said bill was postponed until to-morrow the 13th inst.

The bill entitled, an act to authorise executors, administrators and all other persons to divide large claims, so as to make them subject to the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, was read the third time, rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, an act to provide for the public printing of the state, was read the third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Claude from the committee to which was referred, the bill entitled, an additional supplement to the act entitled, an act for the benefit of the University of Maryland, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendments which were read the first time.

Strike out the whole of the bill but the enacting clause and insert the following.

“That Doctors Nathaniel Potter, Richard W. Hall, Maxwell McDowel, Samuel Baker, and the personal representative of the late Elisha De Butts, be and they are hereby authorised to file a bill in the chancery court, or on the equity side of Baltimore county court against the trustees of the University of Maryland, for the recovery of such sums as may be due to them upon principles of justice and equity, for their disbursements in the purchase of ground and the execution and repairs of the University and Infirmary buildings, together with the sums expended by them in the purchase of the library, museum apparatus, furniture and for insurance.

And be it enacted, That the chancellor or the county court, as the case may be, shall pass such decree in the premises as to them shall appear just and equitable, and