

public to be apprised of them as promptly as possible, the senate in consequence of applications to that effect in behalf of the public, passed an order at an early period of the session authorising four copies of the journal to be daily furnished to each senator. These copies have been punctually supplied by Mr. M'Neir, the printer to the senate; and his account herewith sent is in conformity with the contract made by the committee appointed under the order for the printing of the copies. These copies were ordered, too, to save the extra expense which would otherwise have been incurred of printing resolutions of the senate for distribution.

By order,

Jos: H. Nicholson, Clk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following bills:

A bill entitled, an act supplementary to an act for marking and bounding lands, which was read the first time and referred to the committee on judicial proceedings.

A bill entitled, an act for the benefit of Ann Kennard of Queen Ann's county which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Emory, Pigman and Montgomery, and returned the following bills which originated in the senate, endorsed "will pass."

A bill entitled, an act for the relief of Jane Freeman of the city of Annapolis.

A bill entitled, an act respecting the equity jurisdiction of the county courts in the first judicial district of Maryland.

A bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act to provide for the non complete administrations of justice in equity cases in Allegany county.

A bill entitled, a supplement to the act, passed at November session 1804, chapter 55, entitled, an act to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relates to the general court and court of appeals.

Also the following bills which originated in the senate, endorsed "will not pass."
