

gentlemen as may be selected by your honorable body, to carry into effect the several enactments in relation to that institution.

By order,
George G. Brewer, Cl'k.

By the House of Delegates,
January 1st, 1833.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose, with your concurrence, to appoint a joint Committee to wait on his excellency, the Governor, and inform him that we are now ready to receive any communication he may think proper to make. We have appointed, on the part of this House, Messrs. Wilson and Worthington to join such persons as may be appointed by your honourable body,

By order,
George G. Brewer, Cl'k.

Mr. Chapman submitted the following message, which was read and adopted:

By the Senate,
January 1st, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message proposing to proceed to the election of Register of Wills for Charles and Anne-Arundel counties, at 1 o'clock, and assent thereto.— No other persons than those nominated by you, are put in nomination, and we have appointed Messrs. Chapman and Claude on the part of the senate, to join the gentlemen named by you, to count the ballots, and report the result,

By order,
Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk.

One o'clock having arrived, the Senate proceeded to the election of a Register of Wills, for Anne Arundel county, and a Register of Wills for Charles county. The ballot box being prepared, the ballots were deposited therein. It was then sealed up and delivered to Messrs. Chapman and Claude, who were appointed by the Senate
