

Blackiston and Dudley, to join such gentlemen as shall be named by your honorable body.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Clk.

Mr. Hughlett from the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to which was referred the resolution in favor of Doctor Ennalls Martin, of Talbot county, and a resolution in favor of Benjamin Goddard, reported favorably thereon. They were severally read the second, and by special order the third time, assented to, and returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Pigman submitted the following message, which was read and adopted:

By the Senate,

January 17, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We propose with the consent of your honorable body to appoint a committee of five members of the senate, conjointly with such gentlemen as may be appointed by your house, to bring in a bill to provide for holding elections on the same day throughout the state, for choosing delegates to the general assembly, sheriffs, commissioners of the respective counties, representatives in congress, electors of the senate, and electors of president and vice president of the United States.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk.

Mr. Claude submitted the following message, which was read and adopted:

By the Senate,

January 17, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message proposing the appointment of a joint committee to wait on the governor elect, and request his attendance in the Senate Chamber, to qualify in accordance with the constitution, and concur therein.

We have appointed Messrs. Claude and Page, on the
