

Mr. Emory submitted the following message, which was read and adopted:

By the Senate,

February 8th, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received the message from your Honorable Body proposing to fix on the 2nd day of March next, as the day for adjournment of the General Assembly, and believing that all the necessary business of the session may be finished by that time, concur therein.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk.

The bill entitled an act for the relief of William C. Weatherby of Baltimore County, was read the third time and passed.

The bill entitled, an act to authorise the Trustees of St. Patrick's Church in the City of Baltimore to hold certain property, was read the third time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Morris, the bill entitled, an act to divorce Sarah Barrett from her husband, Patrick Barrett of Baltimore County, together with the amendment heretofore adopted, was taken up for consideration, and while it was progressing in the third reading,

On motion of Mr. Dennis, the following amendment was read and assented to. In the 3rd line of the 3rd section after the word "again" insert the words "during the joint lives of the aforesaid parties."

Mr. Pigman moved to strike out the 4th section, and it was determined in the negative.

The bill was then read through and the question was put, "Shall the bill pass?" The yeas and nays were asked for, and on taking them, they appeared as follows.

AFFIRMATIVE.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Hughlett, (pres. pro tem.)
Claude,
Morris,
Page,—4

Messrs. Dennis,
Emory,
Pigman,
Wootton,—4.

So it was determined in the negative and the bill was rejected.

The senate adjourned until to morrow morning 10 o'clock.
