MONDAY February 11th, 1833.

The senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday.

Mr. Forrest, (President) appeared in the senate chamber and resumed the chair.

The proceedings of Saturday were read.

Mr. Morris presented the memorial of the Canton Company and William Patterson praying they may be authorised to make alterations in the courses of sundry streets, subject to the approbation of the city council of Baltimore, which was read and referred to Messrs. Morris, Emory and Hughlett.

The bill entitled, a supplement to the act vesting certain powers in the President of the United States, being entitled to a third reading, was taken up for consideration, and while progressing in the reading, on motion of Mr. Pigman the following amendment was read and assented to:

At the end of the 1st section add, "And provided that substantial Stone Bridges or Culverts, shall be made over the places of crossing Braddock's run."

The bill was then read through, passed, and returned to the House of Delegates.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following resolutions:

Report and resolutions relative to the ordinance of Nullification, and other proceedings lately had in South
