

And be it enacted, That all securities, promises, contracts, assurances, deeds and lawful acts whatsoever, hereafter to be made or done by, or to the said Samuel Raitt Creighton, by the name of Samuel Raitt Keene, shall be of the same force and effect, and equally available to all intents and purposes, as if the name of Samuel Raitt Keene had been his true and proper name.

And be it enacted, That all rights and privileges which are now enjoyed by the said Samuel Raitt Creighton, and that all liabilities to which he is now subject under the name of Samuel Raitt Creighton, be and the same are hereby continued and extended to him under the name of Samuel Raitt Keene.

The bill was read the second, and by special order the third time and passed

Mr. Dennis from the committee on invalid deeds and defective proceedings to which was referred the bill entitled, an act relating to the last will and testament of Mary Elizabeth Clouet of the City of Baltimore, reported favorably thereon. It was read the second time.

Mr Sappington from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled an act relating to the stone church House commonly called the manor church in Frederick County, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second, and by special order the third time and passed.

The bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act to abolish imprisonment for debt in certain judgments rendered by justices of the peace, passed at December session 1830, chapter 155 was taken up for consideration and while progressing in the third reading,

On motion of Mr. Mayer the following amendments were read and with the bill ordered to lie on the table:

Strike out all of the bill after the enacting clause, and in lieu thereof insert the following:

“That from and after the first day of April next, it shall not be lawful for any justice of the Peace, or any Court on affirmance of any judgment of a justice of the peace, to issue a Capias ad satisfaciendum or execution against the body of any debtor who at the time of rendering or affirming such judgment, shall have been a resident of this State for six months, on any judgment rendered as aforesaid for any sum not exceeding ten dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.