

On motion of Mr. Mayer, the following amendment was read and assented to:

Strike out the 7th section after the word "dollars," and insert the following:

"Shall be exempt from taxation, and the members of the faculty, and the students of said college shall be exempt from serving as jurors and also from the performance of militia duty in time of peace."

The bill was then read through the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Dennis, the bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act to abolish imprisonment for debt on certain judgments rendered by justices of the peace; passed at December session 1830, chapter 155, was taken up for consideration.

The amendment heretofore offered by Mr. Mayer was read the second time, and was as follows:

Strike out all of the bill after the enacting clause, and in lieu thereof insert the following:

"That from and after the first day of April next, it shall not be lawful for any justice of the peace, or any court on affirmance of any judgment of a justice of the peace, to issue a capias ad satisfaciendum or execution against the body of any debtor who at the time of rendering or affirming such judgment, shall have been a resident of this state for six months, on any judgment rendered as aforesaid for any sum not exceeding ten dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

And be it enacted, That on any judgment rendered by a justice of the peace or on any such judgment affirmed by a court where the sum or amount for which such judgment shall be rendered, shall not exceed thirty dollars exclusive of interest and costs, and the demand or debt for which such judgment shall have been rendered, shall be for an account of spirituous liquors sold in quantities or parcels less than five gallons for each quantity or parcel, or shall be on any promissory note, writing obligatory, or other acknowledgment, promise or security, or thing, or cause of action, given, delivered or transferred by the defendant to the plaintiff, or the testator or intestate of the plaintiff, for or on account of spirituous liquors sold as aforesaid, no capias ad satisfaciendum or execution against the body of the debtor shall be issued, and every such judgment shall be rendered
