

“And provided that on any judgment rendered by a justice of the peace, or on any such judgment affirmed by a court where the sum or amount for which such judgment shall be rendered, shall not exceed thirty dollars exclusive of interests and costs, and the demand or debt for which such judgment shall have been rendered, shall be for or on account of spirituous liquors sold in quantities or parcels less than five gallons for each quantity or parcel, or shall be on any promissory note, writing obligatory, or other acknowledgment, promise, or security, or thing, or cause of action, given, delivered or transferred by the defendant to the plaintiff, or the testator or intestate of the plaintiff, for or on account of spirituous liquors sold as aforesaid, no capias ad satisfaciendum or execution against the body of the debtor shall be issued, and every such judgment shall be rendered subject to stay of twelve months as to every other mode of execution on the same, and where any such judgment shall be in part for spirituous liquors sold as aforesaid, or on any such cause of action as aforesaid, (such part not exceeding in principal the sum of thirty dollars,) no capias ad satisfaciendum or execution, as to such part, shall issue against the body of the debtor, nor shall any other execution issue before the lapse of twelve months from the date of such judgment; and as to the residue of the amount of such judgment, said judgment shall be deemed and taken as if it were rendered exclusively for the amount of such residue; and the said justice of the peace or said county court shall in rendering such judgment, or affirming it, distinguish the said parts of claim, or cause of action respectively, on which judgment shall be rendered or affirmed as aforesaid.”

The question was put, “Will the senate assent to said amendment.”

The yeas and nays were asked for, and on taking them, they appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Claude, Mayer, Page.—3.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Forrest, (President),	Morris,
Dennis,	Osborn,
Groome,	Pigman,
Hughlett,	Wootton.—8.

So it was determined in the negative.
