

At the end of 8th section add:

“And such stock now purchased, or that may hereafter be purchased, to sell for the benefit of said Bank.”

Insert the following as the 9th and 10th sections:

“And be it enacted, That all suits, judgments and decrees in law and equity now pending, brought or obtained by the said commissioners, by the corporate name of the Cumberland Bank of Allegany, against any individual or individuals shall be continued in said name by the president and directors of the Cumberland Bank of Allegany after their appointment under this act until the final termination of said suits, and until the final recovery of the money due on said judgments and decrees by such final process and legal proceedings as may be ordered by said Bank. And any suit or suits hereafter brought by said commissioners in the corporate name of the Cumberland Bank of Allegany, in law and equity, before the appointment of directors under this act shall be continued in said name as aforesaid, until the termination and final recovery of the money due, by such final process, and by such final legal proceedings as may be ordered by said Bank.

And be it enacted, That if a majority of the stockholders holding a majority of the shares of stock at their meeting on the first Monday of April next shall determine not to accept a revival of the charter of said bank as provided for in this act, then the said commissioners shall proceed to wind up and close the concerns of the said bank, as directed by the act of December session 1823; ch. 144, and the act of December session, 1826, ch. 128. Provided, that in voting said determination the stockholders shall vote as follows: For one share, and not more than two shares, one vote each, for every two shares above two and not exceeding ten, one vote. For every four shares above ten, and not exceeding thirty, one vote. For every six shares above thirty, and not exceeding sixty, one vote. For every eight shares above sixty and not exceeding one hundred, one vote. And for every ten shares above that number, one vote; and no person or persons, or body politic shall be entitled to a greater number than thirty votes; and all votes shall be by ballot, delivered in person or by proxy.

The bill was then read through the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.
