

They were severally read the second, and by special order the third time, assented to, and returned to the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Hughlett the resolution in favor of Barbara Reily,

The resolution in favor of Adam Hoops,

The resolution in favor of Barnard Thompson,

The resolution in favor of George Pearce,

And the resolution in favor of Stephen Fennell, were severally read the third time, assented to, and returned to the House of Delegates.

The clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following message:

By the House of Delegates,
March 1, 1833.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

The great and unexpected accumulation of public business in this house, renders it impossible to adjourn on the day heretofore fixed, we therefore propose with the concurrence of your Honorable Body, to defer our adjournment.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Clk.

Also a resolution in favor of James M. K. Hammett, administrator of Thomas Lynch,

Which was read the first time, and referred to the committee on finance.

Also a bill entitled, an act to prevent the unreasonable delay of justice, and accumulation of unnecessary law suits in the courts of this state.

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on judicial proceedings.

Mr. Sappington presented the memorial of Horatio McPherson, of Frederick county, for authority as executor of John McPherson, to execute deeds.

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Sappington, Page and Dennis.

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Washington Medical College of Baltimore being entitled to a third reading, was taken up for consideration, and whilst progressing in the reading,
