

Montgomery county, over the river Potomac nearly opposite the lower end of Black Walnut Island,

Which was read the first time, and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

And returned the bill which originated in the senate entitled, an act for the benefit of William S. Jenkins of the city of Baltimore, endorsed "will pass."

On motion of Mr. Dennis the bill entitled, an act to facilitate the collection of the tax in the several counties of this State on deceased person's estates, was taken up for consideration.

The amendments reported yesterday, were read,

And on motion of Mr. Dennis, amended by adding the following proviso to the first section:

"Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall make it incumbent on any executor or administrator to mention in said account of transfers, the name of any transferee to whom the whole property transferred does not exceed the sum of fifty dollars, or to make mention therein of the property thus transferred."

The said amendments were then assented to:

The bill was read the second, and by special order the third time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Mayer the message heretofore submitted by him in answer to the message of the house of delegates relative to the appointment of a joint committee on the subject of a State Bank, and the general condition of the finances of the State, was read a second time and adopted.

Mr. Mayer from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Liberty Town Savings Institution, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Mayer from the committee to which was referred a bill entitled, an act giving compensation to jurors in cases of forcible entry and detainer, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Mayer, from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Fell's Point