

Savings Institution of Baltimore, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendments which were read and assented to:

Insert the following as an additional section immediately after the the third section,

“And be it enacted, That every person who shall be a weekly depositer of said corporation, and who shall have deposited not less than one dollar for each week for the period of twelve successive months, shall thereby become a member of said corporation, and shall have the right to require and receive from the president thereof, or other officer in that behalf by the by laws appointed or designated, a certificate of membership, and the person so becoming a member shall, so long as his said amount of deposite, shall remain with said corporation, be entitled to all the rights and privileges belonging to a member of said corporation under the provisions of this act and under any by laws of the said corporation. And the regular weekly deposits of any member of said corporation shall in no case exceed the sum of five dollars for any one week, and the whole amount of such deposits of any such member shall in no instance exceed the sum of two thousand dollars.

And it is hereby provided that nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to confer authority on the directors or stockholders, by any rule or by-law to restrict or limit the number of weekly depositors who may desire to deposite or become members of said corporation,

Provided, however, that the amount paid in by each depositer be not less than one dollar per week, and that they in all things comply with the provisions of this act and the rules, and by-laws, which may from time to time be adopted.

At the end of the 4th section of the bill add:

“Nor as conferring any powers inconsistent with the grants of the State heretofore made to the existing banking institutions in the city of Baltimore.”

The bill was then read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Page the bill entitled, an act supplementary to an act entitled, an act to establish a bank and
