

SEVEN O'CLOCK, P. M.

The Senate met. Present the same members as in the forenoon.

The Senate adjourned until Monday morning 10 o'clock.

MONDAY, March 4, 1833.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday.

Mr. Emory appeared in the Senate chamber and took his seat.

The clerk communicated to the senate a letter from the President, in which he asked leave of absence for a few days from the seat of government.

On motion of Mr. Page, the senate proceeded to elect a president pro tem.

The ballots were prepared and deposited in the ballot box, and on examination thereof by the clerk, it appeared there were eight votes taken in all; seven of which were given for Mr. Hughlett, and there was one blank.

Whereupon Mr. Hughlett was declared to be elected president pro tem. and he accordingly took the chair.

The proceedings of Saturday were read.

The resolutions in favor of the Visitors and Governors of St. John's College,

And the resolution in favor of James Jones, of Baltimore county, severally assented to by the senate on Saturday, were returned,

And the message relative to a state bank, adopted on Saturday,

And the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Mount Hope College,

The bill entitled, an act to make valid certain records therein named, severally passed by the senate on Saturday, were sent,

And the bill entitled, an act to cause the owners of mills at or near the public roads in Dorchester and Allegany counties to erect side railings on bridges which they may have placed or shall hereafter place on said roads,
