

End of the first section add,

“And the said commissioners are hereby further authorize to survey, lay out and open a road not exceeding thirty feet in width, commencing at some point on the road at the top of Silas Baldwin’s hill on the east side of the little Gun-Powder Falls, leading from the upper cross roads to Baltimore, to intersect the said road on the most practicable route on the west side of said falls in Baltimore county, at some point between said falls and John Baldwin’s gate (near said road,) and the said commissioners shall make a plat of so much of said road as shall be in Harford County and return the same to the clerk of Harford county court to be recorded; and likewise a plat of so much of said road as shall be in Baltimore county, and return the same to the clerk of Baltimore county court to be recorded; and the said road, when so opened, shall be deemed a public road, and be kept in repair as other public roads are by law directed to be, within said counties.”

Section 2nd, 3rd line, strike out “two hundred and fifty,” and insert “two hundred and seventy five.”

4th line, insert after the word “bridge,” “and surveying, laying out and opening said road.”

6th line, after the word “bridge,” insert “and surveying, laying out and opening said road.”

7th line, insert “and fifty,” after the word “hundred.”

8th line, after the word “abutments,” insert “and in surveying, laying out and opening said road.”

Additional section proposed, as 3rd section:

“And be it enacted, That the commissioners or a majority of them shall value and ascertain the damages that may be sustained by any person or persons through whose land the aforesaid road may be made to pass, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, if any, and the damages where so ascertained and certified to the commissioners of said counties, shall be levied, assessed and collected as other county charges are within said counties, one moiety in each, and shall be paid over by the county commissioners wherein such damages may be sustained, to the person or persons entitled thereto.”

Make section 3rd of the bill, section 4th, and in the 3rd line, after the word, “bridge,” insert “and surveying, laying out and opening said road, and the said commissioners shall be entitled to an allowance for their services, of two dol-
