

On motion of Mr. Mayer the following amendment was read and assented to:

At end of 5th section add:

“And the judgement afore said shall make part of the proceedings to be transmitted as aforesaid upon said appeal and to be considered by the court of appeals.”

The bill was then read through, and on motion of Mr. Mayar the following was assented to, as an additional section;

“And be it enacted, That where the County court shall upon a motion aforesaid, grant a new trial, the party or parties opposing such motion shall have the same right of appeal and subject to the same rules and regulations as is provided hereinbefore in behalf of the party or parties moving such new trial; and if the court of appeals shall be of opinion that the said motion for a new trial ought to have been over-ruled, and shall upon exceptions in the cause or otherwise determine that the judgement of the county court ought to be affirmed, the court of appeals shall affirm and enter said judgement in accordance with and for the amount of the verdict which by the granting aforesaid of said motion for a new trial shall have been vacated.

After some debate,

On motion of Mr. Mayer the bill was order ed to lie on the table.
