

7. Resolved, That we implore our fellow citizens of South Carolina, allied as they are to us, by all the heart-stirring and inspiring recollections of the eventful struggle that made us an independent nation, maturely to ponder over the present crisis in their affairs, and magnanimously to return to more temperate counsels, and a juster sense of that obedience to the general will which constitutes the lasting security, and should be the glory and the ornament of every member of this confederacy. But should our fellow citizens of South Carolina, contrary to our reasonable expectations, unsheath the sword, it becomes our solemn and imperative duty to declare, that no separate nation ought or can be suffered to intrude into the very centre of our territory.

8. Resolved, That the governor be requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the president of the United States, to each Senator and Representative in Congress from this state, and to the governors of the respective states of the Union.

House of Assembly,

February 18th, 1833.

These re-engrossed joint resolutions, having been three times read in the house of assembly,

Resolved, That the same do pass.

By order of the house,

JOHN P. JACKSON,

Speaker of Assembly.

IN COUNCIL,

February 18th, 1833.

These re-engrossed joint resolutions having been three times read in the council and compared,

Resolved, That the same do pass.

By order of Council,

ELIAS P. SEELEY, Vice President.

I, James D. Westcott, Secretary of the State of New Jersey, do certify, that the foregoing is a true copy of the joint resolutions of the Legislative Council and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, passed February 18th, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and thirty three,
