

NÉGATIVE.

Messrs. Hughlett, (pres't. pro tem.)	Claude,
Dennis,	Emory,
Morris,	Wootton. 6

So it was determined in the negative.

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time, and the question was put, "shall the bill pass?"

The yeas and nays were asked for, and on taking them they appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Hughlett, (pres't. pro tem.)	Claude,
Dennis,	Emory,
Morris,	Wootton. 6

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Groome,	Mayer,
Montgomery,	Pigman,

So it was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Mayer the said bill was reconsidered, and ordered to lie on the table.

The senate proceeded to ballot for two additional directors on the part of the state in the Farmers Bank of Maryland. The ballot box was prepared, and the ballots deposited therein.

It was sealed up and delivered to Messrs. Pigman and Morris, who were appointed to meet the committee of the House of Delegates, to count the ballots, and report the result. They retired, and after some time, returned and reported that there were 68 votes, taken in all, of which Samuel Sprigg had 53 votes, for the Farmers Bank of Maryland, and Thomas Haywood had 53 votes, for the Branch Bank of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, at Easton, and that there were 10 blanks, and eight scattering votes.

Whereupon it was declared that for the Farmers Bank of Maryland, Samuel Sprigg is duly elected, and for the Branch Bank of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, at Easton, Thomas Haywood is duly elected directors on the part of the state, for and during the present year.

The senate proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day, being the bill entitled, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act to incorporate the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail-Road Company. The bill was about to progress in the third reading, when
