

by default be had by a jury upon the allegations of said declaration; and the jury shall certify to the court in manner as usual in cases of writs or orders of inquiry, in suits at common law, the finding of said jury had in the form and terms of a special verdict; and thereupon the court shall proceed to judgement as aforesaid in the matter of said corporation."

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Mayer from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act empowering the Frederick county court as a court of equity to decree and order the sale of certain real estate, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendments,

Which were read and assented to:

At the end of the 1st sec. add:

"And provided that minors interested under the devise of said John Taylor in the said real estate, be made parties defendant in the said cause, on said equity docket."

Insert as the second section as follows:

"And be it enacted, That if said court shall decree a sale as aforesaid, the court shall provide, by such order, as to notice to creditors, and otherwise as it may deem proper, for the payment out of the proceeds of sale, the debts of said John Taylor.

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Mayer, the bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to incorporate the Baltimore and Susquehanna rail road company, was reconsidered,

And on motion of Mr. Mayer the amendment proposed by the house of delegates to the third amendment heretofore proposed by the senate,

Was read and assented to:

The bill was then read through as amended, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, an act to provide for the widening of a
