

part of Wagon Alley in the city of Baltimore, was read the third time, and

The question was put, "Shall the bill pass?"

It was determined in the negative, and the bill returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Emory submitted the following message, which was read and assented to:

By the Senate,

March 14, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received the message from your honorable body, proposing to request his excellency the Governor to attend in the Senate Chamber, this evening, at 5 o'clock, to sign such laws as have been passed by the General Assembly, and are now ready for his signature, and concur therein.

We have appointed on our part Messrs. Emory and Mayer, to join the gentlemen named in your message to perform that duty.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk.

On motion of Mr. Sappington, the bill entitled, an act relating to the Westminster, Fanev Town and Emmittsburgh Turnpike Company.

Was read the third time, by special order, passed and sent to the House of Delegates.

The bill entitled, an act for the relief of George Fouke and Elizabeth his wife, and Henry and Lewis Fouke, was being read the third time, when

On motion of Mr. Mayer the following amendments were read and assented to:

Strike out the words of the preamble after the word "court," in the 7th line.

"Strike out the bill after the enacting clause, and insert as follows:

"That the court of appeals may at their discretion reinstate the said case on the docket of the court of appeals; and that after being so reinstated, the said case shall be in the same condition, and the said court shall