

A bill entitled, an act for the benefit of Hester Anthony.

A bill entitled, an act for the benefit of John C. Heimkin of the city of Baltimore.

Also returned the bill which originated in the senate, entitled a further supplement to the act entitled, an act for the dispatch of business in Baltimore county court, endorsed, "Will pass with the proposed amendments," which amendments were read and adopted, and were as follows:

Add to the first section as follows:

"And that all actions of law shall stand for trial and judgment at the second term of the said court, after the impetration of the original writ in such actions; and that there shall be a stay of execution for thirty days upon all judgments confessed at the first trial term."

In the fourth line of the second section, strike out the words "no proceedings being had by the parties, or any of them for any period," and insert in place thereof, "by reason of a proceeding not being had by any of the parties during any limited period;" and add the following additional section:

"Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That upon petition of any permanent trustee or trustees of any insolvent debtor of the city or county of Baltimore to Baltimore county court, setting forth that he or they has or have a personal interest inconsistent with his or their continuing to act as trustee, or stating any other ground which shall appear to the said court sufficient or reasonable to authorize such trustee or trustees being discharged from the said trusteeship; or if on the petition to said court of any creditor of such insolvent debtor, setting forth such or any other ground as aforesaid, and the answer of the trustee or evidence taken as in cases in equity, as usual being considered, it shall appear proper to the court to discharge from the trusteeship any trustee or trustees aforesaid, the said county court may discharge as aforesaid such trustee or trustees, and appoint a trustee or trustees in his or their place, requiring, however, and taking bond of such new trustee or trustees with such condition and in such form and penalty as the court may direct, to the state of Maryland for the faithful performance by said new trustee or trustees trust aforesaid: Provided however, that nothing herein contained, shall after such discharge, be construed to prevent such court
