

an act respecting appeals in cases of issues sent for trial from orphans courts, endorsed "will pass."

Mr. Morris from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to divorce Peter Kamp from his wife Amelia Kamp, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendment:

Which was read the first time.

Strike from the bill the words "a vinculo matrimonii" and insert the words "a mensa et thoro."

On motion of Mr. Mayer the following message was read and adopted:

By the Senate,
March 18, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The bill entitled, "An act to incorporate the Savings Institution of Somerset and Worcester counties at Salisbury" was passed on Saturday last by the senate; but was intended to be retained in this body for a motion for reconsideration with a view to an additional amendment. It has, however, been inadvertently sent to your honorable body; and we would, therefore, request you to return it to the senate for its further action thereon.

By order,
Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

Mr. Morris from the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims to which was referred the resolution in favor of Mary Chapman of George-town, District of Columbia.

The resolution in favor of Anne Semmes, and a resolution in favor of William Moore, reported favorably thereon.

They were severally read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Morris, the resolution in favor of Mary Chapman was read the third time by special order assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, an act to divorce Elizabeth Ness of the city of Baltimore, from her husband Samuel Ness was being read the third time, when
