

Mr. Dennis from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to facilitate the collection and improve the revenue of the state reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought not to pass.

It was read the second and by special order the third time rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Claude from the committee to which was referred the resolution relative to the distribution of the extra sets of the acts of Congress in the Library, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time assented to and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Claude from the committee on the Library to which was referred the resolution relative to the state library reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time assented, to and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Claude from the committee on the library, to which was referred the bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act establishing a library for the use of the legislature, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Dennis the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Somerset and Worcester rail road company was reconsidered.

On the further motion of Mr. Dennis the question was put,

“Will the senate recede from the amendments heretofore proposed by the senate to said bill?”

And it was determined in the negative.

Mr. Emory submitted the following message,

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table:

By the Senate,
March 21, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have reconsidered the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Somerset and Worcester rail road company, at the request of your honorable body, and adhere to our amendments thereto.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.