

So it was determined in the negative, and the resolutions returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Mayer from the committee on judicial proceedings, to which was referred the bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province, and limiting the extent of them, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendments, which were read and assented to:

1st. section. Strike out all of this section after the word "apply," in the 5th line, and insert in place thereof "to all debts due from and claims against and judgments recovered against any corporations, and to all debts due and claims accruing to any corporations, to the same effect as if such corporations were natural persons, and where any two successive writs or summonses on suit against a corporate body shall be returned, that such corporate body is not to be found such case shall be deemed and taken to be within the provisions of the third section of the act to which this is a supplement; and the act passed at November session, of the year seven hundred and ninety five, chapter fifty six, being also a supplement to said act shall be taken to extend to all corporate bodies not incorporated by this state, and to all corporate bodies, although incorporated by this state, not having the president and directors or managers or a majority of the said president and directors or managers residing in this state; and all such corporate bodies shall be within the provisions of said supplement, as if persons not citizens of this state, or not residing therein.

2d section. Strike out the first two lines, and all of the third line, as far as "minor," and insert in place thereof:

"And be it enacted, That in all cases aforesaid of debts from or claims or judgments against any corporations to, or in favor of, or belonging or accruing to a minor."

Strike out the 3d section, and insert in place thereof:

"And be it enacted, That in all cases of debts or claims aforesaid, due or accruing to any corporations as aforesaid, the president, treasurer, cashier, or other officer of said corporation for the time being shall be competent to make the oaths or affirmations required by the act to which this is a supplement or any of the supplements thereto."

Add the following as an additional section;

"And be it enacted, That where by virtue of this act and the act to which this supplement or the supplement"
