It was read the second, and by special order the third time, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Mayer submitted the following message, which was read and adopted,

By the Senate,

March 22d, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We beg leave to return to you and respectfully ask your reconsideration of the bill which originated in the Senate, and has been rejected by your honorable body, entitled, a supplement to the act to define and enlarge the powers of courts of equity.

The provisions of this act seem to us of the first importance to the fair and prompt administration of justice, and we would therefore earnestly ask your reconsideration of it.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Cl'k.

Mr. Morris submitted the following message which was read and adopted,

By the Senate,

March 22d, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We believe that it is impracticable with a proper respect to the interest of the public to draw the session to a close this evening as we have previously proposed, and which had been concurred in on your part. We now propose, with the concurrence of your honorable body to close the session on Saturday, (to-morrow) and we fix on that day for the purpose of closing the session by adjournment.

We also propose that his Excellency the Governor be requested to attend in the senate chamber at 12 o'clock for the purpose of signing the laws.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Cl'k.
