

was referred the bill entitled, an act relating to the people of color in this state passed at December session 1831 chapter 281, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Pigman submitted the following message,

Which was read and adopted, and with the bill to which it refers, sent to the house of delegates:

By the Senate,

March 22, 1833.

Gentlemen of the house of delegates,

We respectfully ask you to reconsider the bill herewith returned, entitled, an act relating to appeals from county courts, which originated in the senate and has been rejected by your honorable body.

Under our impression of the utility of the proposed law we would respectfully ask your attention to the bill.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

Mr. Mayer from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to divorce Bethiah Sands of the city of Baltimore, from her husband John Sands, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendment which was read and adopted:

Add the following section:

“And be it enacted, That the said Bethiah is hereby declared to be entitled to the custody and guardianship of her children.”

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time, rejected and returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Mayer from the committee, to which was referred the bill entitled, an act supplemental to an act to declare and ascertain the right of citizens to private roads, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendment,
