

Which was read and referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates.

Mr. Emory, submitted the following message.

Which was read and adopted.

By the Senate,

Jan. 6th. 1834.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message proposing to go into the election of Governor, this day, at 12 o'clock, and concur therein. No other gentlemen have been put in nomination by the Senate, than those mentioned in your message.

We have appointed Messrs. Emory and Chapman, to join the gentlemen named in your message to count the ballots and report the result.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson Cl'k.

The President laid before the Senate, the following communications.

Which were read.

And on motion of Mr. Mayer, ordered to lie on the table.

Annapolis 4 January, 1834.

The Honorable, the President of the Senate of Maryland,

SIR:—We have the honor to inclose you the within communication, and to request that it be presented to the Senate. A duplicate copy will be sent to the other branch of the Legislature.

Very Respectfully your obedient servants,

John Buchanan,

Reverdy Johnson.
