

WEDNESDAY, February 12th, 1834.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The Proceedings of yesterday were read.

The message of Governor Thomas, communicating certain resolutions of the General Assembly of Georgia; and the General Assembly of North Carolina, referred yesterday to the consideration of the house of delegates, and

The preamble and resolution relative to a suit now pending in Baltimore county court, between John Cockey, and Larkin H. Smith, assented to by the senate on yesterday, were sent, and

The bill entitled, an act to make valid the official acts of Wilson Hays, as a justice of the peace for Frederick county, passed by the senate on yesterday were returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Chapman from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Steam Milling and Manufacturing Company of Charles county, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought to pass, with the following amendments,

Which were read and assented to:

In the 2d line of the 5th section after the word "President" insert "any three of whom."

Add as an additional section.

And be it enacted, That this act shall continue and be in force until the 1st day of January 1860, and until the end of the first session of the General Assembly which shall happen thereafter.

The bill was then read the second and by special order the third time passed and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a reso-
