

The yeas and nays were asked for, and on taking them they appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Claude,	Pigman,
Groome,	Sappington,
Mayer,	Wilson,
Morris,	Wootton.—8.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Hughlett,	Montgomery.—2.
-------------------	----------------

So it was determined in the affirmative, and the bill returned to the house of delegates

Mr. Groome from the committee on divorces to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to divorce George Millerman from his wife Mary Millerman,

Also a bill entitled, an act to divorce Emeline R. Hall of Somerset county, from her husband John M. Hall,

Also a bill entitled, an act to divorce Julianna Donaldson from her husband William B. Donaldson, passed at December session 1832, chapter 21, reported that the committee had said bill under consideration and were of opinion they ought not to pass.

They were severally read the second time.

Mr. Groome submitted the following order:

Which was read the first time, and

On motion of Mr. Mayer, ordered to lie on the table.

In accordance with the views set forth in the report of the committee of divorces made a few days ago, I have been instructed to submit to the consideration of the senate the following order:

Ordered, That this senate will not entertain any petition or sanction any bill for divorce unless the petitioners shall have conformed with the requisitions of the act of assembly passed at December session 1829, ch. 202; except in cases
