

On motion of Mr. Morris,

The following amendment was read and assented to:

At the end of the bill add:

And be it enacted, That all deeds, conveyances, transfers, assignments, sales, deliveries, conversions or dispositions of any property or estate, real, personal, or mixed, debts, rights, or claims, that shall be made or caused or allowed to be made by any insolvent debtor before his application for the benefit of the insolvent laws to, or in favor, or for, or with a view to the advantage, of any creditor of such debtor, after such debtor shall be insolvent, in circumstances and not in the usual course of the business or dealing of such insolvent debtor, shall be deemed and taken to be undue and improper preferences to such creditor, and to be null and void to every effect, intent and purpose.

The bill was then read through and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.
