

SATURDAY, January 3rd 1835.

The senate met. Present the same senators as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

Leave was granted to Messrs. Mayer, Page and Wilson, to report a bill, to be entitled, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act to authorise the making a general alphabetical index of the land records of Baltimore County, from the year seventeen hundred and ninety-nine inclusive, and to keep up such index henceforth.

Mr. Mayer presented the memorial of George Terrence, counter to the memorial of William B. Buchanan, for a special act of insolvency.

Which was read, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Wilson presented the petition of sundry citizens of Somerset County, praying for a law authorising the levy court of said county to cause the house now occupied as the public office, to be removed, and a new fire proof commodious house, for the safe keeping of the records to be erected in its stead, and to levy a sum of money sufficient for the erection of said building.

Which was read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

Mr. Mayer from the committee to which leave had been granted, reported a bill entitled, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act to authorise the making a general alphabetical index of the land records of Baltimore County, from the year seventeen hundred and ninety-nine inclusive, and to keep up such index henceforth.

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading?

It was accordingly engrossed, and

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

Read the third time by special order and passed.

The Senate adjourned until Monday morning 10 o'clock.
