

development of the topography and geological resources of the state.

With the highest respect,
We have the honor to be,
Your obedient Servants,
James Thomas.

The following message was also received from his Excellency Governor Thomas, by the hand of Thomas Culbreth, Esquire, Clerk of the Council.

It was read and with the accompanying documents, referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates.

Executive Department,

Annapolis January 22d, 1835.

Gentlemen of the senate and of the house of delegates.

We herewith lay before you a communication from the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company with a printed copy of the eighth annual report of the President and Directors to the stockholders; also the proceedings of a convention lately held in the State of Tennessee for the promotion of internal improvement; and a report of the board of managers for removing people of color, with an amount of their disbursements and other documents relating to that subject

We have the honor to remain,
With the highest consideration,
Your obedient servants,
James Thomas.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

FRIDAY, January 23, 1835.

The senate met. Present the same senators as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The message adopted by the Senate on yesterday, in answer to the message of the house of delegates, relative to the election of Bank Directors, and the message received yesterday from his Excellency Governor Tho-