

On motion of Mr. Wilson,

The bill entitled, A supplement to an act entitled, an act to prevent the unlawful exportation of negroes and mulattoes, and to alter and amend the laws concerning runaways, passed at December session, 1817, chapter 112,

Was read the third time by special order, passed, and sent to the House of Delegates

Mr. Morris, submitted the following message:

Which was read the first time.

By the Senate, February 19, 1835.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We herewith return to you the bill, entitled, "An act to authorise the appointment of a commissioner of loans," with the amendment proposed to the Senate that "the Governor and Council, for the time being shall approve, which bond shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the Western Shore." We respectfully request, that you will reconsider and recede therefrom,

By order,

J. H. Nicholson, Clk.

On motion of Mr. Forrest,

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill, entitled, An act, to divorce William B. Everett, from his wife Emily Everett, otherwise called Emily F. Everett.

The amendment heretofore offered by Mr. Wootton, was read and dissented from.

The bill was then passed as heretofore amended, and returned to the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Forrest,

It was ordered that William B. Everett and Emily Everett, have leave to withdraw the papers submitted by them to the Senate:

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

Leave was granted to the committee on judicial proceedings, to prepare and report a bill, entitled, A further supplement to an act entitled, An act, for amending and reducing into system the laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments, the duties of executors, administrators and guardians, and the rights of orphans and other representatives of deceased persons.

Mr. Sappington presented the memorial of sundry citizens of Frederick city, praying the suppression of the lottery system in this State,
