

The bill entitled, An act relating to the Franklin Turnpike Road, was being read the second time when,

On motion of Mr. Morris,

The following amendment was read and assented to:

In the 10th line of the 1st section, after the word "Company," strike out the rest of the section.

The bill was then read through, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled, An act for the relief of Richard Osborn,

Was read the third time, passed, and returned to the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Groome,

Leave was granted to the committee on judicial proceedings to prepare and report a bill to be entitled, A further supplement to the act entitled, an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province, and limiting the extent of them.

On motion of Mr. Groome,

Leave was granted to the committee on judicial proceedings to prepare and report a bill to be entitled, A supplement to the act entitled, an act for limitation of certain actions, for avoiding suits at law.

Mr. Emory submitted the following message,

Which was read and adopted:

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

It was ordered, that it be entered on the Journal, as unanimously adopted:

By the Senate,
March 3rd, 1835.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We ask leave to direct the attention of your honorable body to the increased size of the Journal of the Proceedings of the Senate, for the last three sessions preceding the present, with a view to give to the Clerk of the Senate some additional compensation, and to a just and proper increase of his salary. It will be found, on referring to the printed or recorded proceedings of the Senate, that the Journal of either of these sessions contains almost as much matter again as is contained in the Journal of any previous session—consequently the duties and labours of the Clerk have been very nearly doubled. The salary which the present Clerk receives, is the same given to the Clerk of the Senate when the labors of that officer were but half as
