

Read the third time, by special order, and passed.

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

The bill, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act relating to insolvent debtors in the county and city of Baltimore, was taken up for consideration,

The bill was being read the third time, when

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

The following amendments were read.

Strike out all after the word "thereto" in the 4th line of the 1st section and insert "all conveyances, assignments, sales, deliveries, payments, conversions, or dispositions of property, or estate real personal or mixed, debts rights or claims or confessions of judgment that shall be made or caused or allowed to be made whether upon request or otherwise, by any applicant to or in favor, or with a view to the advantage or security of, and with intent to prefer, any creditor or creditors, security or securities of such applicant when such applicant shall have had no reasonable expectation of being exempted from liability or execution for or on account of his debts, without applying for the benefit of the insolvent laws as aforesaid, shall be deemed within the meaning and effect of the sixth section of the act to which this is a supplement to have been made with a view or under an expectation on part of the applicant of being or becoming an insolvent debtor, and with an intent thereby to give an undue and improper preference: Provided however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply as against any person or persons claiming by virtue of any assignment or conveyance for valuable consideration, from or under the creditor or creditors, security or securities, their heirs, executors, or administrators, nor to any case where the said creditor or security shall appear not to have had notice of the condition of insolvency as aforesaid of said debtor,"

Add, as the 8th section to the bill,

"And be it enacted, That where any debtor, entitled to apply for, and obtain the benefit of the insolvent laws of this State, shall, upon any process of execution, or any judgment, be imprisoned in Baltimore county, and shall continue actually imprisoned as aforesaid, for the period of sixty days, it shall and may be lawful, on application of any creditor of such debtor, for the commissioners of insolvent debtors, for the city and county of Baltimore to cause said person to appear before them, to show cause why the said commissioners shall not appoint a trustee, as hereinafter mentioned, for the benefit of the creditors of such debtor of all said debtor's property, rights, and estate,
