

pending before the Senate, to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to York.

In accordance with an unanimous resolution of the meeting, I have the honour respectfully to request that you will present said proceedings to the Senate.

With the highest respect, &c.

JESSE HUNT, Chairman.

At a large and highly respectable meeting of the citizens of Baltimore, held at the Exchange on Tuesday the 10th of March, in pursuance of a call of the Mayor, for the purpose of adopting such measures as might be deemed proper in relation to a bill recently passed by the House of Delegates of Maryland, and now pending before the Senate, to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to York:

Jesse Hunt, Esq. Mayor of the city, was called to the chair;

Samuel Moore,	} Vice Presidents.
Samuel Hoffman,
Jacob Albert,
Jacob G. Davies, Esqrs.

William Crawford, Jr.	} Secretaries.
B. I. Cohen, Esqrs.

The following Preamble and Resolutions were submitted by J. V. L. M'Mahon, Esq. and unanimously adopted.

Whereas the House of Delegates, in the General Assembly of Maryland, have passed a bill providing for the prompt completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and the completion of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to York, in Pennsylvania, upon terms highly beneficial to the companies incorporated to construct those works, and in every way advantageous to the people of Maryland: And whereas this meeting regard the early completion of these improvements as being necessary to the prosperity of this city and state, and also because the said bill wisely provides an ample fund, without taxation, for the support of Public Schools throughout this State, and the universal education of those who will control our destinies, and upon whose intelligence the welfare and safety of the state must ever depend. Be it therefore
