

Resolved, That the Governor and Council shall cause to be paid, such amount as they shall find to be fair and proper, for the printing in regard to said revision, and digest heretofore done at the instance of Messrs. Buchanan and Johnson.

Resolved, That the acts of Assembly of this State, public or of a general nature, now in force, or hereafter before the completion of the work to be enacted, be revised, collated, and digested, under their appropriate titles: and that, for that purpose, the Governor and Council, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to appoint a competent person to act as the director of the digest, who shall divide into such titles all the said acts, and devise the form in which the digest shall be made, and report the same to the Governor and Council; who shall thereupon appoint as many persons as to them may seem most proper to ensure a prompt accomplishment of the work, to whom shall separately be assigned, to be revised, collated and digested, one or more titles. And each of said persons shall note the acts or parts of acts, omitted from the digest as having been repealed or having expired, or as being repugnant to the constitution of the United States, or of the state, and shall make such suggestions as to additional enactments, and as to the imperfections of any kind in the existing law of the titles committed to him as he may think proper. And one or more of said persons shall be assigned the duty of compiling the constitution of this state with the bill of rights, and also the constitution of the United States, with all alterations it shall have undergone since its adoption. And it shall be the duty of one or more of said persons to make a list in chronological order of all acts not public, or of a general character, and not for the benefit of particular individuals. And the said persons shall report their respective works to the director of the digest, who shall examine the same, and make such corrections thereof, and additional suggestions under the several titles, as to him may appear proper. And the directors shall make a report to the General Assembly of the whole work so prepared by such persons, with an index to it, which he shall make or cause to be made; presenting in his said report, all his views and every information in his power, for facilitating the assembly in their deliberations upon it. And the director shall cause two hundred copies of the said report to be printed for the use of the assembly when it shall be submitted, which printing shall be paid for un-
