

INDEX TO THE REPORT.

	Page.
REPORT OF THE GEOLOGIST, . . . . .	3
SECT. I.—Southern limits of the shell-marl deposit on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, available for Agricultural purposes. . . . .	4
SECT. II.—Principal location of the shell marl deposits between the Choptank and Chester rivers, . . . . .	6
SECT. III.—Nature of the materials contained in the shell-marl deposits of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, . . . . .	10
SECT. IV.—Mode of extracting the marl—its use and its application . . . . .	14
SECT. V.—Of the different kinds of soil belonging to Caroline, Queen Ann's, and Talbot counties; their natural susceptibilities to improvements, and the mode of amending them, . . . . .	24
SECT. VI.—Miscellaneous Resources of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, for Agricultural and other purposes, . . . . .	29
Geological Examination of the shores of the Potomac in Prince George's and Charles counties; Md. . . . .	32
SECT. I.—Geology of Prince George's and Charles counties on the Potomac, and characters of their soils, . . . . .	33
SECT. II.—Principal localities of the shell-marl deposits on the Potomac, their constitution, relative value, and use, . . . . .	35
SECT. III.—Mineral resources of the portions of Prince George's and Charles counties, situated on the Potomac . . . . .	43
Of the State Cabinet, and its proposed arrangement, . . . . .	44
Miscellaneous matter which has fallen within the duties of the State Geologist to investigate during the past year, . . . . .	45
Nature and object of the Maps A. and B. appended to this Report, . . . . .	47