

A resolution in favor of Martha Jay, and A resolution in favor of Julia Rouark, Which were severally read the first time and referred to the committee on Revolutionary Claims.

Also, the following Bills:

A bill entitled, an act to extend real estate,
Which was read the first time, and referred to the committee on judicial proceedings.

A bill entitled; an act relating to the Baltimore Markets.
Which was read the first time and referred to Messrs.
Morris, Mayer and Wootton.

On motion of Mr. Wootton,

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Greensborough Manufacturing Company, was taken up for consideration,

The question being on the amendments reported yesterday with the bill,

Mr. Pigman moved to amend said amendments as follows:

After the word "excess" in the proposed amendments, insert the words "and present at the board at the time such excess shall take place, except such as shall have their dissent entered on the books or minutes of the Company at said time"—and strike out the residue of the amendments.

The question was put, and determined in the negative.

The question then recurring on the amendment yesterday reported.

Mr. Wootton offered the following as a substitute.

At the end of the bill add:

"And be it enacted, That whenever the debts and liabilities of the company shall exceed the amount of capital actually subscribed for, including the assets in hand of said company, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the director, to call a meeting of the stockholders, and to lay before them at said meeting, a full and fair statement of the debts and liabilities of said company and their means of meeting them. And in case no meeting shall take place then it shall be the duty of said directors to furnish to the stockholders, through the nearest newspaper, a full and fair state of the actual condition of said company. And that any neglect on the part of the directors, to call such meeting or to make or publish in some newspaper, such statement of the debts and liabilities of said company, and their ability to meet them, shall render said directors answerable for the same, or if after said meeting called by the directors in virtue of this act, and a full and fair statement being laid before them or published as before directed, the
