

company shall continue to act—the said stockholders shall be answerable in their individual or private capacity for all debts, contracts and liabilities incurred by said company after that time.

And be it enacted, That no stockholder shall be eligible as a director, who shall not hold at least shares of said stock.”

On motion of Mr. Pigman,

The said bill, amendments and substitute were ordered to lie on the table.

The following message was received from His Excellency Governor Veazey, by the hands of Thomas Culbreth, Esq. Clerk of the Council.

It was read, and with the accompanying documents, referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

Annapolis February 12th, 1836.

Gentlemen of the Senate, and

Of the House of Delegates:

We lay before you a communication from Thomas Shriver, Esq. Superintendant of that part of the National or Cumberland Road lying within the limits of this state; which contains information and suggestions worthy of your consideration.

We also lay before you communications, severally, from the Honorable Robert H. Goldsborough, one of the Senators of this State in the Congress of the United States; and from the Honorable John N. Steele, Benjamin C. Howard and Isaac McKim, members of the House of Representatives of the United States, from this State, acknowledging the receipt of the Resolutions which you recently passed on the subject of placing Buoys on sites in the Rivers Straits and Sounds, in the lower part of the Eastern Shore.

We have the Honor to remain,
With the highest consideration,

Your Ob't. Serv'ts.

THO. W. VEAZEY.

Mr. Mayer presented the petition of Noah Fairbanks, for a special act of insolvency,

Which was read and referred to the committee on Insolvency.

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

Leave was granted to the committee on invalid deeds and defective proceedings, to prepare and report a bill
