Mr. Page moved to strike out the 22nd section,

The question was put, and determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Page,

The following amendments were read and assented to,

In the 4th line of the 24th section after the word 'except' strike out to the word 'subpœnas' in the 6th line.

At the end of the 24th section add,

'That each witness shall be entitled to charge and receive for each days attendance in obedience to the mandate of the court, the sum of thirty three and one third cents, to be taxed as costs of the suit.'

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

The following amendments were read and assented to:

At the end of the 25th section add:

'And if the monies received by the said chief justice shall not have been sufficient to pay the per diem allowances aforesaid, the levy court or county commissioners of the county shall annually pay to the justices such sums as shall be requisite to make up the full amount of such allowances, to be levied and collected as county charges are.'

At the end of the 28th add:

'And this act shall in no wise affect any suits whatsoever that shall have been brought before the first day of May next; for any causes of action declared by this act to be within the exclusive jurisdiction of said justices or the said district courts.'

On motion of Mr. Page,

The bill was then ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Mayer presented the memorial of Orndorff and Company and others, that flax seed exported coast-wise may be allowed to be exported otherwise than in casks, and not subjected to inspection when not exported in casks,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Mayer, Page and Morris.

The Senate adjourned until to morrow morning at 10 o'clock.
