24th. The Assistant Clerk of the Senate shall lay upon the desk of the President every morning, as soon as the Senate is formed, all bills, resolutions and motions, depending before the senate, in the order of time in which they were reported, or presented for consideration; and at all times while the senate is sitting, when no motion is under consideration, the President shall, without any motion take up said bills, resolutions and motions, in the above order, and propose them for the consideration of the Senate; and they shall then be considered and acted upon, unless postponed by the order of the Senate.

25th. Whenever any bill, resolution, report, or other proposition, shall have been read through a second time, with or without amendment, the President shall propound the question, "shall this bill (resolution, report, or other proposition, be engrossed for a third reading?" If decided in the negative, the bill, &c. shall be rejected; if in the affirmative, it shall be engrossed and read a third time according to the rules of the senate.

26th. No amendment shall be received at the third reading of any bill, resolution, report, or other proposition, originating in the senate, unless by consent of two thirds of the members present, but it shall at all
