

times be in order, before the final passage of any such bill, resolution, report, or other proposition, to move its re-commitment; and should such commitment take place, and any amendment be reported by the committee, the said bill, resolution, report, or other proposition, shall be again read, and such reading be considered a second reading; and then the question shall be put whether it shall be engrossed and read a third time, and if decided in the negative, the bill &c. shall be rejected; if in the affirmative, it shall be engrossed and read a third time, according to the rules of the Senate.

27th. That all committees shall consist of three members, to be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

28th. No motion to rescind a rule shall be received, unless notice of the motion shall have been given on a previous day.

29th. Every bill and resolution originated and passed by the House of Delegates, shall, after the first reading in the Senate, be referred to a special or one of the standing committees, as the discretion of the President may direct.