

May 27]

By the Senate,
26th May, 1836.

Gentlemen of the house of delegates,

We beg leave to return, and to ask your reconsideration of the bill entitled, 'A further additional supplement to an act entitled, an act to regulate the inspection of tobacco. The provisions of the act are deemed of the first and most urgent importance to our commerce in tobacco, much inconvenience being now experienced from the supposed necessity of a second inspection, for which the act purposes to relieve the trade in that article.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

Mr. Groome from the committee to which was referred the petition of Hugh Brown, reported a bill entitled, an act for the benefit of Hugh Brown,

Which was read the first and by special order the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

It was accordingly engrossed, and

On motion of Mr. Groome,

Read the third time by special order, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, nine o'clock.

FRIDAY, May 27th, 1836.

The Senate met. Present the same Senators as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Page appeared in the Senate Chamber and took his seat.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following message:

Which was read and referred to the committee on finance.

By the House of Delegates,
May 26, 1836.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message of the second of April last, announcing to us that you had reconsidered and rejected the resolutions passed through this house, authorising
