

voice personally

John. Hild of Saint Georges Island Master Charles Hild of Place de Ste and was admitted and made his Parry Captain Henry Hild

Then was proposed whether the Laws formerly read should be read again in the house or put to the Vote without further reading

Captain Combridge gave his Opinion that they should expect a more frequent house

Captain Hild gave his opinion that they should be read again

|                     |   |                 |                   |
|---------------------|---|-----------------|-------------------|
| with them concurred | } <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Mr. Clarke</li> <li>Henry Kingham</li> <li>Edward Hild</li> <li>Simon Parry</li> </ul> | being in all 18 |                   |
|                     |   |                 | voices with these |
|                     |   |                 | voices            |
|                     |   |                 |                   |

in the contrary that they should be put to the Vote immediately agreed by

|  |                        |
|--|------------------------|
| } <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The President</li> <li>Captain Victor</li> <li>Mr. Sawyer</li> <li>Mr. Green</li> <li>Mr. Hild</li> <li>Francis Redmill</li> <li>James Bullock</li> </ul> | Being in all 33 voices |
|--|------------------------|

Then were the Laws put to the question whether they should be received Answer no

|   |                 |
|---|-----------------|
| } <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The President</li> <li>Mr. Sawyer</li> </ul> | being 14 voices |
|---|-----------------|

Denied by all the rest of the assembly being 37 voices