

he be admitted as such shall take oath in these words following

I A B Do swear that whilst I am a member of this Province I will true faith bear to the right honorable Cacilius Lord of this Province and his heirs saving my allegiance to the Crown of England and hereunto them and his and their due rights and Jurisdictionis under every of them will defend and maintain to my power the peace and welfare of the people I will ever procure as far as I may I will aid and assist the administering and execution of Justice in all things to my power I will to my best shall give good & faithful Council to the said Cacilius and his heirs & to his or their Lieutenant General of the Province for the time being when they come. I shall be called and I will keep secret all such matters as are delivered me as secrets as becometh a Councillor to do, So help me God

And be it further enacted that from and after the last day of this Assembly every Judge of any his Lordships Courts before he executed any Judicial Act shall take oath in these words following

I A B do swear that whilst I am a member of this Province I will true faith bear to the Right honorable Cacilius Lord of this Province and his heirs saving my allegiance to the Crown of England, and his & their due rights and jurisdictionis and every of them will defend and maintain to my power to none will I deny or deny right or wrong will I take for any of them but equal Justice will administer in all things to my best shall without fear favour