

and Commodities laded or unladed or attempted to be laded or unladed contrary to the intention of this present act this act to continue in force till the end of the next General Assembly

An Act that all Accountants to the Lord Proprietary account upon oath

Be it enacted by the Lord Proprietary of this Province by and with the assent and approbation of the freemen of the same that all and every person or persons who shall hereafter at any time make any Accounts or any entry of or for any money Goods commodities or any merchandises whatsoever to or for the use of the Lord Proprietary or his heirs unto or with the Secretary of this Province for the time being or unto any other Officer or minister of the Lord Proprietary or his heirs appointed or to be appointed to receive or to take such accounts or to make such entry shall at the time of such account or entry to be made take his Oath that such account or entry is true and just and that such Person or Persons so account or making entry of or for any money goods or merchandises whatsoever hath or have not concealed any commodities whatsoever from the knowledge of the said Secretary Officer or minister of the Lord Proprietary or his heirs which ought or are intended to be accounted for or entered by such Person or Persons so accounting or making any entry as aforesaid and that such Person or Persons so accounting or making Entry of or for any money Goods merchandises whatsoever or his heirs for that purpose appointed