

(121)
or to be appointed shall from time to time have Power by force of this act to administer an oath unto all and every person and persons so accompanying or making any such entry as aforesaid this Act to continue till the end of the next Generall Assembly

© An Act for military Discipline.

Be it enacted by the Lord Proprietary of this Province by and with the assent and approbation of the Freemen of the same that every house keeper or house keepers within this Province shall have ready continually upon all Occasions within his or their house for him or themselves and for every person or his her or their house for him and themselves and for every Person within his or their house able to bear Arms one serviceable fixed Gun of Bastard muskets or one pair of Bandeleers or shott Bay one pound of Good powder four pound of Pistoll or muskett Shot and a sufficient quantity of match for match locks and of flints for firelocks and before Christmas next shall also find a sword and Bell for every such Person as aforesaid and it shall be for the Captaine of Saint Marys Band or the Commander of the Isle of Kent then or either of their Sergeant or Marshall once in every month to demand at every dwelling house within their several districts a sight or view of the said arms and ammunition and to certify the faults therein to the Captain or Commander who