

The house agreed upon these Orders following

1 Any ten members of the house at any time assembled at the usual or appointed time whereof the Lieut Gen^l and six burgesses to be seven shall be a house unless sickness do hinder that number in which case only the members present to make the house

Consented to by the Freemen
Enacted by the Lord Proprietary

2 Any one of the house not appearing upon call after the third beating of the drum shall forfeit 100^l unless he have leave of the Lieut General for absence

3 The Drum to beat as near as may be to sunrise and half an hours distance between each beating

4 No Bill to be read above once in one day

5 None to speak in one day above once to one Bill without leave of the Lieutenant General upon pain of 20^l if two or more rise together the Lieut General shall determine who shall speak first

6 None to use any indecent taunting or reviling words to the naming or personating of any member in the house or any other way nor behave himself in his speech upon pain of such censure as the house shall think fit

Upon the motion of the Secretary intimating the necessity to pass the first of these Orders by way of Bill in regard of an act in force the first Order was read by it self as a Bill and passed by all the Freemen Then the Lieut General enacted it in his Lordships name for a Law